

Editorial Statute

At a time when Portugal and Spain continue to be highlighted on the "radar" of international investors, Vida Imobiliária, in collaboration with "Observatorio Inmobiliario", has launched a new publishing brand: Iberian.Property.

Addressed at the international investor community, this new publication brings together the main updated real estate news in Portugal and Spain, with a special focus on the Madrid, Lisbon and Barcelona markets, with the mission of promoting the international development of the Iberian real estate market, providing independent and useful information which will help to make better investment decisions.

The publication Iberian Property has the commitment to assure the respect for the ethical principles and professional ethics of journalists, as well as for the good faith of the readers.
